

Office of Legislative Counsel - Journal
Monday - 9 February 1959

Page 3

11. At the request of IO talked with Mr. Elliott in the State Department who has the responsibility to prepare a draft response to Congressman Don Magnuson (D., Wash.) who had written inquiring on behalf of a constituent if the Government gave any support to Radio Free Europe and the Crusade for Freedom and, if so, how much. Mr. Elliott stated he would make available a copy of the letter of query.

12. Talked with George Arceneaux, Jr. and arranged for Legislative Counsel to meet Senator Ellender at 12:45 to bring him down to the Agency for luncheon on 10 February.

13. Al Westphal on the staff of House Foreign Affairs telephoned in connection with the amendments to the Foreign Service Act (S. 443 - not as yet introduced in House) and in particular the extension of the 5-year reserve appointments for an additional period of 5 years.

25X1

14. Colonel Crogan telephoned to advise that the Director had mentioned in his presence that it would be desirable to have Senator Eugene J. McCarthy (D., Minn.) over for a visit since he seemed like such a nice person.

25X1

MORI/CDE